

Fine Progress on Playground Plan

FOUNDERS' MEETING TO BE HELD NEXT TUESDAY EVENING.

AMOUNT NEARLY SUBSCRIBED.

Interest in the Playground Project grows apace and it is confidently expected that the full amount required will be secured before the first investors' meeting next Tuesday evening, November 30, 1920, at Elm Hall, when the By-Laws Committee will report and the Association formed in permanent fashion. A generous mortgage can, of course, be had on the property, but the Borough residents are not likely to allow this rather undesirable feature to occur, as it is pointed out that such an arrangement would not pay particular tribute to Narberth's civic pride or capacity, and it would deprive the enterprise of that highly concerted aspect which is warranted by the fine improvement contemplated. If this phase of the matter has escaped the attention of any of our citizens, it is suggested that they apply their sense of the fitness of things to all the circumstances, and they will soon decide that the co-operation essential is in direct ratio to the benefits to be bestowed, and once that fact is clearly and fairly established, good American men, always scornful of being helped where they can help themselves, will forthwith scamper in with their investments, in $100 multiples, with a $1,000 maximum.

Only a few more thousand dollars need to be secured to make the full amount required, to enable the ground to be taken over for spot cash, in which event the best low-down price will naturally be secured, and with respect to the discussion which has obtained regarding the price of the plot, the Borough can be assured that men, not boys, will be sent to market when this important phase of the matter comes to be settled, and there can be full confidence that the figure eventually paid will represent rock-bottom and will indicate that every element which could properly be utilized to Narberth's advantage was employed in the trade. Therefore, have no misgivings about a hot job, but put your money up on the assurance that the security for it will always be worth more than par, as a private venture would obviously have to pay more for the land than the Playground Association expects to pay.

In more than one case, tenders of $1,000 have been made to the project, as an outright gift, but fine as this spirit is, it conflicts with the purpose of the enterprise, in much the same manner that a meagre representation of citizens would deprive the project of its most wholesome aspect, and therefore a most earnest request is made for united and unanimous support, by investments for from one to ten shares at $100 each.

Before the first investors' meeting on next Tuesday evening proceeds to business, a call will be made for additional subscriptions, to afford all citizens an opportunity to participate in the venture from its very beginning, with all the prestige accruing to "founders," and it is accordingly expected that the first roll call will indicate beyond question that Narberth is indeed in the vanguard of square and fair civic endeavor.

Narberth Volunteers Save Valuable Property From Fire

ELLIS RESIDENCE ON MONTGOMERY AVENUE SAVED BY PROMPT ACTION AND HEROIC WORK.

Narberth has many things to be proud of, and not the least of these is their willing and efficient volunteer fire company.

Once again the boys are highly commended on work that would be a credit to a paid city department.

Do you know that the Narberth Fire Company has a record of saving every property to which they have been called?

That no lives have been lost where it was humanly possible to save them; to the limit of bravery and self-sacrifice. A fine record for a fine body of men—volunteers all—no one paid—risking their lives and enduring hardships that our lives, properties and belongings might be saved from the ravages of fire.

Friday, the twelfth, was a cold day and firemen had to be real "smoke eaters" to save the Ellis house, but it was done.

Are you not proud to be at least a contributing member of our fire company?

The three dollars annual dues is not by any means a hardship, and then, too, our fire protection reduces your cost of fire insurance about twenty per cent.

Below a letter from Mr. Ellis:

Narberth, Pa., Nov. 16, 1920.
Mr. Chas. V. Noel,
Chief, Narberth Fire Company,
Narberth, Penna.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find report to the State Fire Marshal filled out to the best of my ability, and I again want to thank you and your company for the wonderful work you did in putting out the fire at my residence.

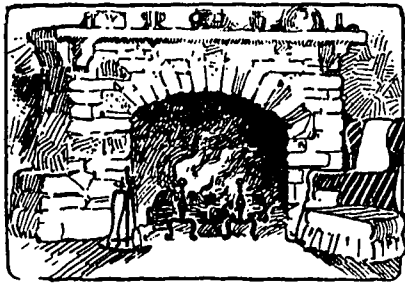

I also want to tell you that the adjuster for the Contributionship Insurance Company was there today, and not only complimented your company on the work they did at this fire, but said that he was always very glad when he heard that your company was present at any fire that they had anything to do with.
(Signed) DAVID M. ELLIS.

Japanese Day at the Community Club

At the Community Club on Tuesday there were three speakers, all with most interesting subjects. Miss Knox, of the Near East Relief Society, related her very recent experiences in Armenia. The extremity of the hunger of these people being that nothing can take their eyes off the ground lest they miss a grain of food. Mrs. R. F. Wood, Chairman of Literature, gave a book review on Jeffrey Farnol's "Gifte Duke Jocelyn" and "Black Bartley's Treasure." The character of these novels was presented in a very clear and instructive manner. Mrs. Wilbur F. Hamilton, of Cynwyd, who spoke on the manners and customs of the Japanese people of today, had many novel curios from her trip through Japan. The dolls were unique, the miniature ivory carvings were almost unbelievable, and many other pieces characteristic of Japanese people.

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, President of the Club, opened the meeting by reading a prayer made by William Penn for the city of Philadelphia in 1684, and which is now tabulated on bronze in the north corridor of City Hall. The music was appropriate to the day. Mrs. A. B.

Civil Service examination in Narberth November 27. Local secretary is Miss Ruth Haws at the post office, who will supply all necessary blanks and instructions.

Mr. William Livingston, of Chestnut Avenue, has returned from a three weeks' visit in the Southern States. Mr. Livingston reports having experienced very cold weather and a severe snow-storm.

Among the Penn rooters at the game with Columbia at New York on Saturday were Misses Ruth Haws, Marian Haws, Marian Graham, Eleanor Wilson, Agnes Rose, Mr. John Nash and Jack Price.

The article, "Narberth Playground Gets Under Way," which appeared in last week's issue, was very favorably received by the people of Narberth, and it seems as though Narberth, as a unit, will stand back of the playground proposition as outlined.

The Narberth American Legion Building and Loan Association opens its second series on December 7th. An application blank for stock appears on the last page of this issue of Our Town. The Association meets the first Tuesday of every month at Elmwood and Essex avenues, from 7.30 to 9.00 P. M.

Tennis Dinner-Dance Was a Big Success

MR. GRUGAN SHINES AS AFTER-DINNER SPEAKER — CUPS AWARDED TO WINNERS IN 1920 TOURNAMENT.

Including, of course, Thorny Grugan's "speech of acceptance," when he was presented with a silver cup, the annual Dinner-Dance of the Narberth Tennis Association, last Friday night, in Elm Hall, was a big success—not to say howling, particularly after Thorny's few extemporaneous remarks!

The party started shortly after seven o'clock, when Chairman Bob Pattison, of the Entertainment Committee, clapped his hands, and announced that it would be a crying shame, or words to that effect, to let the big U-shaped table groan any longer under the weight of all the good things that were waiting to be consumed.

The invitation was promptly accepted and the celebration was on! The diners were interrupted several times by some stunts—just to break the monotony of eating—which Bill Hall and Walter Shaw and Carl Metzger all agree is no monotony at all!

Finally came the presentation of the prizes won in the annual Tournament. This year the prizes were silver cups, and to even attempt to do more than say that each and every one of them was a beauty would be verging on that futile and unnecessary job of gilding the well known and familiar lily. A few words, however, concerning the members to whom the cups were given, and why they were awarded, will not be amiss.

Naturally most interest centered around the first Ex-President's Cup, which was awarded to the member whose playing during the past season showed the greatest improvement. This went to Wayne Harris, whose playing throughout the summer has improved steadily and consistently. The others to whom cups were given were:

Championship Singles—F. T. Van Auker; runner up, A. T. Grugan.

Championship Doubles—Messrs. Warwick and Shaw (a cup to each); runners up, Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Staples (a cup to each).

Championship Consolation Singles—W. D. R. Evans.

Championship Consolation Doubles—Messrs. Bailey and Edgerton (a cup to each).

Ex-President's Cup, for Greatest Improvement in Playing During Season 1920—Wayne Harris.

And then the tables were cleared and the chairs pushed back against the walls, and the orchestra, which had enlivened the dinner with its music, turned to the popular jazz and Bob Pattison and Jim Donnelly and all the other leading exponents of the jazzy-schorean art proceeded to hop, skip, glide and jump the light fantastic until the orchestra itself had to jump and run for the last train.

"Was a pleasant time had by all?" our reporter asked Chairman Pattison.

"It was absolutely unanimous!" replied Mr. Pattison.

Enlargement of Presbyterian Church Nearing Completion

SUNDAY SCHOOL PORTION PLACED IN SERVICE LAST SUNDAY.
CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL GROWING.

The enlargement of the Sunday School portion of the Presbyterian Church is now practically completed. It was actually placed in service last Sunday morning.

Material expansion of the Sunday School attendance in recent years made it necessary for the Board of Trustees to provide more space for the Sunday School class rooms. In order to do this, it was decided to enlarge the present building by constructing an extension on the north side and remodeling the basement rooms.

The new portion extends to within a short distance of the north property line, and is 16 feet by 27 feet in size. With this, and the remodeled interior, the Sunday School space has been increased 75 per cent. on the basement level and 50 per cent. on the first floor.

Every precaution was taken in the reconstruction of the basement portion to insure absolutely against dampness. In fact this space now has all the advantages of the first floor rooms.

To overcome the usual dampness prevalent in sub-surface rooms the outside drainage was first revised. Concrete air-ways were constructed practically to the basement floor level, and the walls were waterproofed inside as well as on the outside.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.—Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.

NEW SERIES B. & L. ASS'N.

The Narberth American Legion Building and Loan Association will open its Second Series on Tuesday evening, December 7, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Little Office, Cor. Elmwood and Essex Ave.

LABOR AND THE LEGION.

One of the daily papers last week gave a very interesting account of the meeting held by the World War Veterans in reference to the bonus question.

One of the speakers, a labor representative, condemned the American Legion on the ground of favoring capitalism.

Why should we, the majority rank and file, who are nearly all laborers ourselves, favor the capitalists?

The Legion is founded on the basic principles of showing no favoritism to politics, capital, labor or any one religion or sect.

The labor radicals are learning a lesson from the reaction of the war, not the action.

VICTORY MEDALS.

It is now possible to obtain your Victory Medal with little or no trouble on your part.

You will want this Medal, so take advantage of your opportunity. Write to the Army Recruiting Office, 1323 Race street, for applications, or see your Post Adjutant.

THE SOUTH SIDE APPROACH TO NARBERTH STATION.

One of our well-known and old boroughites expressed his appreciation of the Legion's proposal to occupy the lot and little office at the station on the south side.

It has made it possible to keep this plot of ground from becoming an eyesore.

The Legion's plans for beautifying this plot and making it possible to lend a helping hand to another very worthy organization are meeting with daily approval by many boosters of "Our Home Town" and will soon be ready for the community's sanction as a memorial proposition.

SPECIAL MEETING.

There will be a special meeting of the Post on Friday evening, December 10, in our new home. The election of officers for the year 1921 will take place at this time.

Ardmore Y. M. C. A. News

Everybody is working enthusiastically in preparation for our Big Fair to be held on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening, December 3rd and 4th. Arrangements have been made to provide first class music for the dancing. The entertainment, which will be given free, will be worth more than the price of the admission ticket. The persons in charge of the seven different sales counters are planning for big things. As an additional feature of attraction, Madam Thasin's millinery and dressmaking classes will exhibit hats and gowns which they have made. These will show in part the exceptional results the women enrolled in these classes realize. Responses for contribution are gratifying. There will be displayed a splendid variety of Christmas suggestions.

The business men of the community who are attending our "Business Men's Special Gym Class"—which meets every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evening from 5.00 to 6.15—are very Montgomery County industrial workers were victims of 19 fatal accidents during the first nine months of this year, according to figures announced by Dr. Clifford B. Connelley, Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Industry. The report was compiled by the Bureau of Inspection. During October no fatalities were reported to the State authorities from that county.

Throughout the State there were 1,940 fatal accidents from January 1 to November 1. Seven hundred and seventy-five of them were suffered by miners, 733 by persons employed in industrial plants, and 432 by public service workers. The State's fatality roll reached 188 in October, according to the reports received by the Department of Labor and Industry.

WET FEET THIS WINTER? NO!

To the Editor of Our Town:—

These bleak November days, with an occasional bluster accompanied by a flurry of snow, bring to recollection the wintry days of 1919-20. It is not difficult to think back less than a year ago and recall how nature covered Narberth and vicinity with a light blanket of snow, then how a heavier snowfall added to the delight of the kids with their sleds, and finally how a blizzard piled the little white flakes high in the fields, on the lawns and in the streets. Traffic was blocked—trains could not run on schedule, automobiles and teams were held indoors, and walking was the only way for one to get around.

It did not take long, however, for the railroad company to rid its tracks of snow, and for the snow plows to open the roadways to automobiles and teams, but in few instances, and then not until a few weeks after the snow fell, did the local residents remove as much as a shovel full of snow from the cement paths that adorn the fronts of their properties. Throughout the livelong winter pedestrians used the streets, continuing to walk, half climb, and fall into the deep drifts to avoid an approaching automobile that could not turn from its narrow path.

As an instance, on Narberth Avenue, between Haverford Avenue and Montgomery Avenue, few paths, if any, were freed from snow, and in many instances "Old Sol" turned the snow into water, making the sidewalks veritable creeks during the day and, when frozen, skating rinks at night.

Evidently the Borough Council has either not passed an ordinance compelling Narberth residents to keep their sidewalks free from snow and ice, under the penalty of a fine, or the ordinance is but a "scrap of paper" not worthy of enforcement.

It is, indeed, not desirable to recall such unpleasant memories at this time, when the summer has scarcely cast off its robes, but if an ordinance has not been passed, it would be well at this time for the Borough Council to take definite action, thus helping to keep its own feet dry during the coming winter, and to keep Narberth the cleanest, brightest and best Borough on the Main Line.

C. C. S.

The "Public Ledger" apparently had the Narberth Playground in mind when it published the following editorial on Tuesday, November 23rd, 1920:

Your Home Town.

"There is something the matter with the man who doesn't care for the place he lives in; who doesn't come back to it with some degree of rapture and relief. The world citizen who boasts that all places are alike to him and any place is home where he hangs his hat misses out of his life one of the first and strongest incentives to decency and duty—which is the desire to win the general esteem and good opinion of the community in which one dwells. There is no reward in money which compares in value with the golden treasure of a good repute. If a man cheats and lies and steals and bears false witness, he may build up a great fortune and still be plagued at night with the knowledge that those about him hold a low opinion of his worth and works. Dr. Eliot, of Harvard, has told us that it is the favorable opinion of a man's home town that is worth earning and retaining. One of the neighbors might be wrong; but if we take the summation of what many are saying, we probably shall arrive at a just estimate.

"Merely to live in a place doesn't make one a citizen. Your heart will be where your work has been put in to help forward any good thing that is going. Of course, one must be true to the immediate family circle and look well to the roof-tree and the dooryard of one's own household first of all. But that intimate indoor devotion, commendable as it is, may become a selfish sentiment that takes no thought for those measures of public welfare in whose benefits we all share. Fault-finders are numberless, who stand ready with harsh censure and snap judgment upon what the toilers are doing. The toilers are too busy doing the work of the fault-finders, and they cannot stop to explain. What every plantation of human beings is in need of, if it is to flourish, is a group of men such as (to give but one shining example) the late Albert E. Turner, who loves others better than they love their own ease and quiet and spend themselves in selfless endeavor. No man gets the name of civic patriot by doing things simply for himself. He must serve the public interest and the general good, not his own pocket; while the range of his charity may cover the whole world, it should, in the homely phrase, 'come home to roost' in his own town."

And Narberth is your Own Home Town.

AN UNDESERVED SLUR ON THE RED CROSS.

There have been abuses in the street solicitation of funds for works of charity, no doubt, and other methods of obtaining them are preferable on general principles. But when Mr. Bird S. Color, Commissioner of Charities in New York, refers to those who are engaged in the work of getting new members for the Red Cross as "panhandlers," he goes beyond the mark.

His argument is that these private charities interfere with the efforts of public officials. It is not a convincing argument, least of all as applied to the Red Cross, which holds a place no other agency could possibly fill.—Philadelphia Inquirer, editorial.

When I first read the above article my blood boiled. Tar and feathers was the first thing I thought of to make him a bird of another color.

When I stood at the foot of the graves of two Red Cross nurses, killed by a bomb dropped on a hospital, and realized that they were surrounded by the men for whose lives they risked their own and sacrificed so much, I felt more than compensated for the little bit I was able to do in the great crisis of the World War.

I wished then that the mothers of those boys could see through my eyes what I saw. There like two guardian angels were those two examples of the highest type of womanhood—"American Red Cross Nurses."

The work done by the Red Cross Chapter in Narberth has made an impression upon the hearts of the men and boys who went out from Narberth that stands out like a "heaven light" to guard us through all the storms of life.

We have not had an opportunity to show our appreciation, and never will to the greatest measure, but it is hoped that the plans under progress will at least show our loyalty and love for this great organization.

SCOUT NEWS.

At last we have a home of our own and one that we are all proud of.

Our organization was formed about five years ago and during that time we have never had a permanent place to meet, that is, one that we were sure of.

We take this opportunity of thanking the Y. M. C. A. and Elm Hall for allowing us to use their rooms in the past, and assure them that it was very much appreciated, for, if it had not been for them, the Narberth Troop would not be in existence today.

Our Scout Master received a check for $150.00 with the following note:

"Enclosed please find check for $150.00, which will cover six months' rent of the quarters you have acquired, together with an additional $30.00 for furnishings, which you will please expend as you will. Should the subject of this co-operation come up at all, please say that Narberth citizens who are interested in achieving success for the Boy Scout movement have lent a hand in securing the sum necessary to relieve your present plight, and that you do not feel privileged to mention the names, as you are impressed they would be better pleased if you did not do so."

No words can tell how the Narberth Scouts appreciated this interest in their behalf and will show their appreciation by putting Narberth on the map in the Main Line Division of the Boy Scouts of America.

Another instance of interest shown by a citizen of Narberth is that we have ordered 40 folding chairs for our quarters, which came to $38.00. To our surprise, we received a check for $40.00 to cover same from a Narberth citizen who has always been interested in the Scout movement and everything else that has been a credit to our town. We also take this opportunity of thanking him for his interest in our behalf and also assure him that we will show our appreciation by making the Narberth Troop a credit to the community.

December 4th, afternoon and evening—Annual Christmas Bazaar of Ladies' Aid Society at Y. M. C. A. Building.

We wish to thank our friends who patronized the soul-stirring moving picture, "The Stream of Life" shown in our church last week. It gripped the audience as they are rarely gripped, by any message or performance in these days. Those who saw will not soon forget. May its impress upon the home life of our town long abide.

JAPANESE DAY AT THE COMMUNITY CLUB.

Ross accompanied Mrs. Joseph Barclay, who rendered a Japanese folk song entitled, "The Counting Song." The words were translated and the music modernized from the original version by Koseak Yamada. "Three Little Maids From School" was given by three school girls—Misses Hoffman, Obodye and Barclay. Miss Rose Riecklin sang a Japanese love song, and Miss Ann Barclay sang a lullaby by Eugene Field, music by Mrs. Joseph Barclay. The girls were all dressed in pretty kimonos.

Mrs. John W. Joyce, Director of Decoration, had the room arranged with Japanese screens, table scarfs, vases, tea set and general Japanese hangings. The hostesses serving tea were Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Mrs. Robert Nash, Mrs. E. G. Schanroth, Mrs. Harold Fenno, Mrs. J. W. Bliss, and Mrs. Horace Moore. They also wore the kimono.

The Choral Society of the Club will have their first rehearsal of the season on Tuesday evening, November 30th, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. A. B. Ross, Forrest Avenue Apartments. Prof. David Spratt, Choir Master at All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, has been secured as the conductor. Prof. Spratt is formerly of St. Peter's Choir of Philadelphia.

The Children's Dancing Class meets every Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Community Room.

The Adult Dancing Class will meet Friday evening, December 10th, at 8 o'clock, in the Community Room.

they get in this class. Only those who try it can appreciate the value derived.

Our Comet basketball team is showing some good playing, meeting fast teams. Those who enjoy this game will, no doubt, enjoy dropping around some Thursday and Saturday evening to see a game. On Saturday evening, November 27th, they will play on our home floor the Norristown Hi-Y team.

Our Commercial Bowling League teams are rolling away with the usual amount of enthusiasm, and with little change in the position of team standing.

Calls for Volunteers

and commanded to appear on the new courts next Saturday afternoon, December 4, armed to the teeth with rakes, spades, coal shovels and wheel barrows, to assist Chairman Hall, of the Board of Trustees, and the other Trustees, in spreading six or seven car loads of cinders over the new courts.

Old clothes—that is, the oldest old clothes, and particularly old shoes—will be the regulation costume. Everybody is requested to be at the courts, at Haverford and Montgomery Avenues as soon after one o'clock as possible.

The high cost of building applies to tennis courts just as it does to any other kind of construction work, and if every member of the Association will report for duty at the new courts next Saturday afternoon, December 4, and lend a willing hand, the Association will save a lot of money—and don't forget, members, that every penny thus saved is a penny saved in your own pocket.

Some years ago the State of Missouri decided to rebuild its old roads and construct a lot of new roadway. The Governor issued a call for citizen volunteers, and set a good example by being the first to offer his services. For two days those Missourians—thousands of them—donned overalls and swung picks and shovels, and surprised not only the rest of the country, but themselves as well by doing as big and fine a piece of road-building work as has ever been done anywhere since the well-known Appian Way was put on the map.

So remember, tennis members, next Saturday afternoon, December 4, you are urged to report at the new courts at Haverford and Montgomery Avenues, as soon after one o'clock as possible. Wear your old clothes, especially old shoes, and bring either a spade or a coal shovel or a rake, or all three—and a wheel barrow if you have one, and lend a hand in spreading the cinders for the foundation of the new courts.

TENNIS MEMBERS, MAKE A NOTE OF THIS DATE, FRIDAY, JANUARY 14.

"I wonder how soon I can get a 1921 diary?" said one member of the Narberth Tennis Association to another member of the same organization, the other morning, while the two were standing on the station platform waiting for the 8.18.

"What's the matter with 1920; you've still got more than a month of this year left? Why hurry into next year?" said the second member.

"Well, you see it's this way," said the first member. "The Tennis Association is going to give its next dance—the midwinter dance I believe they call it—on Friday evening, January 14, and I want to jot down that date, so that I will be sure and not make any other engagement for that evening. I don't want to miss any of the Tennis Dances, and so I take no chances. I'll get that 1921 diary as soon as I get in town and make my first engagement for the new year—Tennis Dance, Friday evening, January 14. That's a pretty good way to start 1921, I'll say."

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

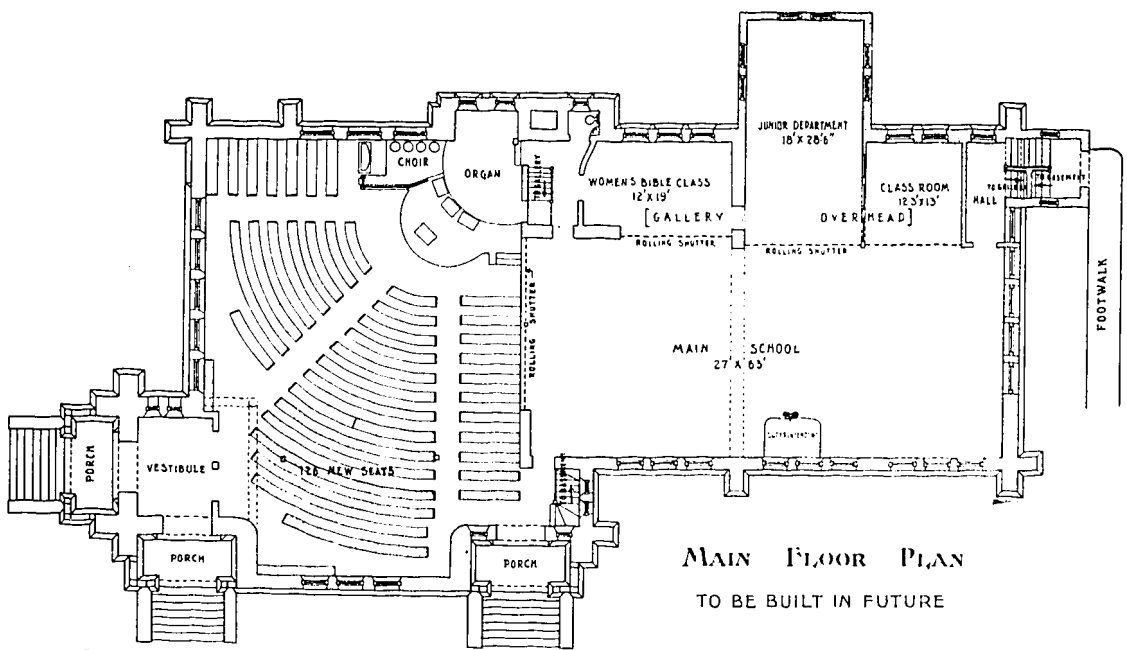

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

PROPOSED ADDITIONS TO NARBERTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Under the floor a ten-inch air space was provided, through which by a special arrangement of the heating pipes, a continuous flow of warm air passes. When the new steam heating system is in full operation, the air below the basement floor and between the new wood wainscoting and the plaster walls will change every thirty minutes or less, depending upon the temperature inside and outside the building. The floor itself is of double thickness, with felt paper between the rough and the finished flooring.

On the first floor level the Junior class room has been extended the full length of the new portion of the building. This makes a room 16 feet by 28 feet. To the rear and side of this room is a small retiring room with toilet facilities.

Above this room is the "Beginners" class room, 15 feet by 28 feet. Access to this room is had by a winding stairway. A new stairway has also been built to the basement to replace the old one, which was rather narrow and steep.

In all, there are now five separate and distinct rooms which will be used for Sunday School purposes. The Men's Bible Class and the Primary Department will use the basement; the main Sunday School room and the Junior class room will be on the first floor, while the "Beginners" class will occupy the second floor room.

The rest hall has been enlarged, which gives free access to the new rear stairways. The east wall of this hall is made up of full length cathedral glass sash doors. This contributes sufficient borrowed light from the Junior class room to allow full use of the new stairways without the aid of artificial light.

On the basement level, a modern kitchen, to be used in connection with entertainments and committee suppers, has been constructed. Abundant closet and service space has been provided, as well as modern plumbing and lighting. The Primary school room on this level has also been enlarged and modernized.

One of the most satisfactory features of the work is the Primary school room, which has been enlarged and remodeled and which has been made very attractive. The wood work is finished in mahogany color, the walls in light cream, and the windows and doors fitted with cathedral glass.

The vestibule at the main entrance to the church auditorium is also being remodeled by removing the two single doors and providing a set of double doors. This will allow a portion of the large vestibule to be embodied in the church proper, and will relieve the congestion which frequently occurs at this entrance to the church.

The work is costing approximately $16,000, and is being done by Messrs. Wallace and Warner, architects.

It was not possible in connection with the work described to provide enlarged facilities for the main Sunday School, because of the additional expense involved. At present the main school occupies not only the Sunday School room but a greater part of the church auditorium.

The trustees are looking forward to the time when they will be able to build a new Sunday School building on the vacant lot to the east of the Church. This new building is planned to be used principally for the main Sunday School, and probably one of the features of the building will be a small stage, so that the building can be used for entertainments. This new building will be connected by an enclosed passageway to the new rooms recently constructed, so that access may be had conveniently from the main Sunday School room to the Primary, Junior, and Beginners' Departments.

When the new Sunday School building is constructed it will be possible to enlarge the church auditorium and also embody the present Sunday School room in the same, thus providing seating capacity for about 500.

At present the church auditorium is too small for the congregation which usually in the morning services occupies also the entire Sunday School room.
